

May 20-22, 2005
Stanford Humanities Center
Stanford University

FACES AND MASKS OF AGING: IMPLICATIONS FROM THE LIVES OF JAPANESE ELDERLY

Open to the public (No registration fee)

Friday, May 20

Levinthal Hall, Stanford Humanities Center

- | | |
|-----------|---|
| 1:30-1:45 | Registrations and Reception |
| 1:45-2:00 | Opening Remarks: Arnold Rampersad, Senior Associate Dean for the Humanities |
| 2:00-3:00 | Keynote Speech by Laura Carstensen
"Aging in the 21st Century: Some New Thoughts on Old Minds" |
| 3:15-4:00 | Keiko Takahashi
"Senior Shutterbugs: Successful Aging through Participation in Social Activities" |
| 4:00-4:30 | Akiko Hashimoto
"Granny Mischief and Her Accomplices: The Menacing Mothers-in-law in Japanese Comics" |
| 4:45-5:30 | Hiroshi Ota and Howard Giles
"A Good Story is Not Enough' Unmasking the Social Meanings of Intergenerational Communication in Japan" |

Saturday, May 21

Levinthal Hall, Stanford Humanities Center

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 9:00-9:30 | Natsumi Morita
"Aging and Illness Among Japanese Dialysis Patients" |
| 9:30-10:00 | Nobutaka Doba
"The New Elder Citizen Movement in Japan" |
| 10:15-11:00 | Haruo Yanai
"An Analysis of Aging Effects on the Life Habits of Japanese People" |
| 11:00-11:30 | Nancy Morioka-Douglas
"Ethnogeriatrics: Taking Care of Ethnic Elders in America" |
| 11:45-12:15 | Susan Long
"Aging Together: Tension, Dependency, and Sacrifice of Elderly Caregivers and Care Recipients" |

Cubberley Auditorium

- | | |
|-----------|---|
| 2:00-4:00 | Film Screening "Lily Festival"
Introduction by Sachi Hamano |
| 4:05-4:50 | Sachi Hamano, Film Discussion
"The Possibility of Sexual Desire Among Elderly Women" |

Sunday, May 22

Levinthal Hall, Stanford Humanities Center

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 9:00-9:45 | Hazel Markus
"Culture, Age, and Well-Being" |
| 9:45-10:30 | Anne Bower
"Talking with Old People in Nursing Homes" |
| 10:45-11:15 | Toshiko Hamaguchi
"Family Conversation as Narrative: Co-Constructing Past, Present, and Future" |
| 11:15-12:00 | Jon Nussbaum
"Communication Wellness in Older Adults: Lessons from Two Decades of Research within the U.S." |

<http://asianlanguages.stanford.edu/events/conference/>

SPONSORS

Stanford Society of Fellows in Japanese Studies
Center for East Asian Studies
Dean of Humanities
Department of Asian Languages
Division of Literatures, Cultures, and Languages
Stanford Humanities Center
School of Medicine

CONFERENCE ORGANIZER

Yoshiko Matsumoto
Department of Asian Languages